

Nellie Thompson Thrills Audience In First Recital At Liberty Hill

A massive audience graciously applauded Mrs. Nellie Thompson, soprano in her first recital presented Sunday, April 27 at Liberty Hill Baptist Church, 5713 Kinsman, Dr. M. E. Wilson, pastor. She was presented by the Senior Choir of the church of which she is a member.

The uniquely arranged program consisted of such favorites as "Prayer Perfect" by Speaks; "Homing, Del Riego; "City Called Heaven," Johnson; "Deep River" and "Sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Child," Burleigh; "Danny Boy," Weatherly; "At Dawning," Cadman; "The Lord's Prayer," Malotte.

While the entire presentation was exceptionally well rendered, "The Lord's Prayer" was noticeably performed with all the charm of a professional artist. Charming in pink chiffon with a shoulder corsage of roses and gardenias, Mrs. Thompson was ably accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Nina Williams, organist of Liberty Hill. Mrs. Thompson currently is studying at the Cleveland Institute of Music.

The singer stands in the picture by the piano on which is the lovely bouquet which was presented to her. Seated is Mrs. Williams, who also wore a shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Wilbretta Johnson, principal of Woolridge Elementary School, spoke at the Children's Day program last Sunday afternoon on "Loyalty." She also gave helpful information on the level system used in the schools.
